VOTE FOR THE BOND ISSUE SATURDAY
AND YOU VOTE FOR PROGRESS

Hancock County's largest asset today is its people living in the County and purchasing their needs in the Community. More people are moving in every year for retirement. Who benefits when a new family moves into the community? The lawyer handles the legal transaction; the civil engineer surveys the lot; the insurance companies insure the property and contents; the banker gets a new account. Painters, plumbers, carpenters and other tradesmen get employment. Suppliers of building materials get their portion of the new business. Appliance stores sell new equipment and maintain used equipment. In addition, these people must eat, so the grocer, baker, butcher and other food handling establishments get their share. Drugs and clothing are also necessary, so each and every merchant can figure on additional profit when a new family moves into the community.

In 1959, 202 building permits were issued in Bay St. Louis and Waveland compared to 128 issued in 1958. As building permits are unnecessary in other areas of Beat Five, this does not indicate the total of new construction.

The total amount of the Bond Issue is $175,000, which is necessary to improve and black top main artery streets in Beat Five, and will encourage the construction of new homes on the property adjacent to the streets to be improved.

The maximum increase in your taxes will be 1.75 per one thousand dollars of the assessed value of your property. Check your current tax receipt to see how little the increase will be compared to the ultimate good which will accrue to your County.

The Bond Issue is approved and recommended by the majority of the Board of Directors of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce.

A. G. DANTAGHAN, President.

"Prisoner Of The Volga" At The Legion Theatre, September 1

Beginning Sept. 1 the Legion Theatre will present a thrill-packed, unusual action drama, "Prisoner of the Volga," a Paramount release starring John Derek, Elsa Martinelli and Dawn Adams, and featuring the international character actor Charles Vanel in the top supporting role.

"Prisoner of the Volga," in Eastman color and Totalscope, is an excitement-charged drama filmed on a big scale to re-create with colorful realism the broad steps of feudal Russia, the misery of the subjugated serfs, the opulence and luxury of the palace life of the aristocracy and the favored over-indulged position of army officers. The film tells the story of what happens to one of those officers whose run-in with his superior lands him in a disciplinary camp, from which he manages to escape. He joins the boatmen of the Volga and his adventures with them and the fiery girl with whom he falls in love make "Prisoner of the Volga" edge-of-the-seat entertainment for movie fans.
